

NIGERIA FINTECH FORUM

3RD EDITION

Nigeria's leading gathering of stakeholders working across various verticals of finance, banking, e-commerce, technology, retail and telcos.

25th July, 2024

The Civic Centre, Victoria Island, Lagos

fintech.eventhive.ng

Nigeria Fintech Forum 2024 Agenda

NFF Annual Keynote Address: THE STATE OF NIGERIA'S FINTECH

This keynote will provide deep assessment of the fintech ecosystem, in the year under review, usually delivered by a senior executive, the session will highlight the pivotal role collaboration plays in driving financial innovation across the continent.

Panel Discussions

Africa in Focus: Financial Services For The Next Decade

In this session, multiple industry leaders will decode how the future payment infrastructure will shape the next decade of financial services. With their collective expertise, they will dive deeper into innovative solutions that will empower the next decade and unlock new opportunities for economic growth in the continent.

Rewriting the rules: Building an open, innovative and collaborative bank of the future

- From cross-industry partnerships to inter-bank initiatives: supercharging innovation through collaboration
- Digital-only challengers, BNPL: staying relevant in an era of new competitors
- From customer expectations to the emergence of AI: what are the key drivers for innovation in banking today?
- Digital banking licences and Nigeria's financial industry- What's new?
- Talent migration? How can banks attract and retain the next wave of digital talent?
- Rapidly evolving marketplaces and platforms: what's next for banking propositions?
- Accelerating the open ecosystem: are banks making the most of current opportunities?
- Data & APIs Partnership: Finding the right balance for industry growth.

Nigeria Fintech Forum 2024 Agenda

Future of Money; How will digital payments evolve in the next decade?

- How are players responding to increased demand for seamless and instant experiences?
- BNPL, QR codes: how is POS innovation transforming the payments experience?
- Blockchain and cross-border payments
- Open banking payments: understanding the potential for banks and customers
- A wallet-led world: evaluating the rise of digital wallets and new innovations

From retail to SMEs: what's next for embedded finance innovation in Africa?

- Charting the future of embedded finance: what now, where next?
- Beyond embedded payments: how can savings and insurance be embedded successfully? What could add the most value for customers?
- The partnership playbook: how can banks prepare for and position themselves as optimal partners for the embedded ecosystem?
- From utilities to leisure: which new sectors could embedded finance propositions expand into?
- Bringing embedded finance to SME customers: what are the commercial opportunities for banks?
- Increase in partnerships, increase in risk? What steps must financial institutions take to ensure third parties are KYC compliant?

Nigeria Fintech Forum 2024 Agenda

MASTERCLASS SESSIONS

Fraud Stage

From FRAML to cross-sector data sharing: collaboration is key

- What practical steps must banks and fintechs take to move towards a FRAML approach?
- Staying ahead of hackers : Latest technologies to outsmarting evolving threats
- How can banks and fintechs address the human vulnerabilities that compromise security?
- Dilemma of Convenience and Security : Headway for finding a balance ?
- Cross-sector collaboration: how can the industry work more efficiently with consumer institutions, law enforcements and more?

CX Stage

Keeping customers at the heart of innovation

Payment Stage

Instant, interoperable, global: future- proofing payments infrastructure

N:B This agenda has not been finalised, we will be making more inputs as our engagements moves forward, before the event.